Policy Statement

The Moore School of Education strongly recommends that interns have no other major obligations during the student teaching semesters.

Rationale

Student teaching is a full-time commitment; it is time-intensive and requires more than just a day at school. After teaching, student teachers will have obligations to grade assignments, plan lessons, meet with teachers and parents, etc.

Policy Procedures

Program requirements and student needs vary; therefore, requests for exceptions should be submitted in writing to the Dean of the Moore School of Education. Students are expected to follow the counsel of the School's Faculty regarding obligations extraneous to student teaching.
