Policy Statement

CU expects students to be Christian ladies and gentlemen not only in public but also in the residence halls.

Policy Procedures

Carolina University encourages its students in Christian growth and maturity to develop spiritual leadership. Of course, CU wants the residence halls to be a friendly and happy place in which to live; therefore, common courtesy and thoughtfulness are essential.

Unsafe pranks or behavior will not be tolerated since they are harmful to individuals and/or personal property. All violations of the provisions of this policy will be considered serious. Functional fire equipment is considered essential to student safety. Tampering with fire equipment or alarms is considered a serious offense and will result in suspension for the first offense. The student will also pay for replacement or repair of any damaged equipment.

Examples of conduct which will result in a fine include, but not limited to, the following:

1. Climbing on the roof and/or walls of a building: $10
2. Climbing out windows of buildings: $10
3. Items left in hallway: $10/Item
4. Tampering with another student's personal possessions (including automobiles): $10
5. Engaging in an act that injures or tends to frighten, degrade, or disgrace a fellow student: $10 or more.
6. Participating in excessive water fights, wrestling, roughhousing, horseplay, etc:$10
7. Unsafe use of combustible materials, matches, or lighters: $100
8. Use of prohibited electrical or gas appliances: $100
9. Possession of unauthorized keys: $100
10. Covering Smoke Detectors: $150
