

Restoration and Due Process

ES_SS_CO_56

Responsible Officer

Marc Cutrell

Responsible Office

Student Services

Approving Body

Board of Trustees

Approval Date

2018-05

Last Revision

2018-05

Re-evaluation Date

2020

Departmental Impact

Student Services

Policy Statement

When a student is discovered not following the expectations of the university, a student will face a discipline system of due process that will allow for a student to defend their actions and seek a process of appeal.

Policy Procedures

CU has clearly laid out the expectations for student conduct responsibilities. Students that step outside of these expectations, whether intentional or not, will be held accountable for their actions; however, the university will work to guide the student through the restoration process.